Grand Traverse Pavilions update for Residents and Responsible parties during COVID-19

Vol. 42, ISSUE 2

POSTED: 9.28.2023

To: Grand Traverse Pavilions Families

From: Grand Traverse County
Department of Health and Human Services Board
Cecil McNally, Board Chair

FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

Thursday, September 28, 2023

Rose Coleman, CEO Administrator of Grand Traverse Pavilions, has resigned her position, effective today. Coleman's resignation has been accepted by the DHHS Board.

In addition to immediate meetings today with senior staff, plans are already being made to find an interim replacement. In the meantime, Lindsey Dood, Chief Financial Officer, will assume the Interim CEO position.

Lindsey has agreed to this temporary arrangement, but the fact remains we require a CEO/Administrator with a state license to head the Pavilions long-term. The immediate vacancy will be filled on an interim short-term basis. This will give our search committee more time to ultimately find a permanent replacement.

Along with professional counsel, staff, and an ad hoc committee appointed by the board of commissioners, we are making progress toward relieving our indebtedness.

OUR THANKS TO ALL

“In the meantime, thank you all for your support. This will pass. And our Pavilions will emerge stronger than ever doing what it does best--- providing accessible, trusted, and compassionate care that enhances quality of life for aging adults of the region....”
